A good friend of mine, Cherim of Papua, came by today. It seems he got a visit from my brother, Filberto, the other day.
He's looking to craft a tuning fork, just like the one Gabiel Piete owns. I have alerted the courts of Yew in fear that he wants to make one for purposes that led him to go to jail in the first place. Although he was released last month, I fear the year he spent in jail was not enough for him to change his ways.
